

February, 2008

Mr. Fred Ayer
Executive Director
Low Impact Hydropower Institute (LIHI)
34 Providence Street
Portland, ME 04103

Subject: Beaver River Project (FERC No. 2645)
LIHI Application for Re-Certification (No. 00007)

Dear Fred:

The LIHI Certification for the Beaver River Project expires on July 24, 2008. Brookfield Power New York (Brookfield) is herein providing Application for Re-Certification. Brookfield's application package is outlined below in accordance with your letter dated January 10, 2008.

1. Brookfield has reviewed the original LIHI questionnaire for any material changes that have occurred in the certification terms that would affect the certification. Although some changes may be insignificant to the re-certification, the following represent changes in the original questionnaire that should be noted.
 - a. The contact information (LIHI #2 Background Information) should be changed as follows:
Steven P. Murphy
Compliance Specialist
Erie Boulevard Hydropower, L.P
c/o Brookfield Power New York
225 Greenfield Parkway, Suite 201
Liverpool, New York 13088
(315) 413-2788
steven.murphy@broofieldpower.com
 - b. It should be noted that under the original certification process the FERC Licensee was Erie Boulevard Hydropower, L.P (Erie) and the owner was Reliant Energy. Currently, the project is owned by Brookfield Power New York and the FERC Licensee remains Erie.
 - c. Attached is a revised list of Key Settlement Parties (LIHI #11 Background Information). Although some of these individuals may not have been directly involved in the settlement process, they currently represent the group involved.

- d. Attached are revised project drawings (LIHI #12 Background Information) that have been updated since the original certification process. Specifically, Exhibit G – Sheet 9 – High Falls Development and Exhibit F – Sheet 9 – Soft Maple Development.
 - e. Attached is an updated New York State Final 2006 Section 303(d) List (LIHI B.3 Water Quality). The information relative to the Beaver River Project has not changed, but nonetheless represents the most current information.
2. Attached is a sworn statement from an officer of the company indicating the information presented for re-certification is true and complete.
 3. Attached is a waiver of liability signed by an officer of Brookfield.
 4. Attached is a check for the application fee in the amount of $5,250, representing 20% of the original certification fee.

If you have any questions regarding this application, please contact the undersigned.

Sincerely,

Steven P. Murphy
Lake Ontario Production Center

Enclosure:
xc: J. Elmer